You will notice that Nasty is on vacation this issue and has not written an article. Unfortunately his vacation consisted of a little stay in the hospital after quadruple by-pass surgery and a little shave. Fortunately, the 'Emperor of Nastopia' will still be ruling his dream planet from his earthly castle and hopefully it will be many years before he actually takes the throne on Nastopia prime. 'Get Well' cards can be sent to WOTR and I will see that he gets them all. Nasty can thank his #1 squeeze, Laurie, for taking good care of all his Earthly wants and needs. Nasty will be back next issue - and he'll be "live" at the Tattoo Expo in August when he may let you see his scars if you ask him nice... and show your tits.

The October issue of WOTR will be #120 and we're throwing a huge party to celebrate WOTR's 10th Year Anniversary on October 24th at Micky's Bar in Pompano. Many of your favorite writers will be there to sign autographs and shoot the shit with you. We're going to have lots of door prizes, free giveaways, a 50/50 (which could be in the $1,000's) as well as official WOTR 10th Anniversary t-shirts, hats and other cool commemorative items that you will want to own. Lisa and Chef Joel will be putting out a huge free buffet. There will be drink, jello shots and bucket's at very special prices... too low to mention. Great live music by Dr. Strong plus a DJ for in-between sets, a few selected vendors will be invited to set up their booths at no cost. An Anniversary flyer will be in the September issue - so make plans for the week after Biketoberfest.

Oxytane. Have you heard of this stuff yet? If not you will soon be singing it's praises. Oxytane is a gas additive that I have been testing in my 1999 Dresser for about 4 months with fantastic results. I have a stock Twin Cam with a little over 54,000 miles on the engine. I always wanted to add some horsepower but never got around to doing anything about it. Mike Colburn (drfuelinstein@yahoo.com) developed this powerful additive and sent me a couple of cartons filled with little white bottles of Oxytane. (I also gave Phantom, Axman and Chef Joel some to try and they will be telling
